

When we share acts of kindness, we

COLOR

Our World

What does this phrase mean?
Mention your own acts of kindness.
Look at the pictures.

A

B

C

D

E

F

Match each picture with a description.

A

B

C

D

E

F

1. An adorable toddler is offering comfort to a crying actor by trying to wipe away his tears.
2. A little child is trying to help a wheelchair-bound man over a pavement curb.
3. The woman's face says it all; she is full of relief and gratitude after a fireman rescued her beloved cat from a house fire.
4. A soldier has just rescued a baby bunny and is now feeding him.
5. A boy risked his life to rescue a tiny fawn (= baby deer) who had been separated from its mother during a flood.
6. After seeing a young wheelchair-bound woman in the rain, the young man ran over to shield her with his own umbrella.

Fill in the blanks with: and - so - because

1. An adorable toddler sees an actor crying on TV _____ she tries to comfort him by trying to wipe away his tears.
2. A little child is trying to help a wheelchair-bound man over a pavement curb _____ he can't do it on his own.
3. The woman is full of relief and gratitude _____ the fireman has rescued her beloved cat from a house fire.
4. A soldier has just rescued a baby bunny _____ is now feeding him.
5. A tiny fawn was separated from its mother during a flood _____ a boy decided to risk his life to rescue him.
6. A young man ran over to shield a wheelchair-bound woman with his own umbrella _____ she was getting soaked up.

Here's your Canvas!

Draw your own acts of kindness!

- Start painting the world with your own acts of kindness!
- Start at home with your loved ones!
- Remember your friends, classmates, teachers, neighbours!
- Remember the animals! And not just your pets!
- Remember the plants! The forests! The jungles! The National Parks!
- It may be anything around you!

KINDNESS
IS
CONTAGIOUS
PASS IT
AROUND