The Greek gods looked like people but taller, more beautiful and could do no wrong. They lived on top of Mount Olympus. It was so high that no man could climb it but the gods descended to earth. Sometimes they visited the earth in their own shapes and other times as humans or animals. Thousands of years ago, the ancient Greeks told wonderful stories about their many gods, goddesses and magical beings. These stories are called myths. Each Greek god had one or more magical powers. The gods used their powers for good, for trickery, and for adventure.
