

Hello everyone!!!!

I am terribly confused. There I was in the land of the Vikings... and suddenly I'm here! I'm in the Middle Ages. The people here dress and talk like in the Robin Hood movie.

I see that some people are sick or very poor and others are lucky because they are KNIGHTS. They wear shiny silver armour with ribbons and banners of lots of colours. Some of the horses have decorations. The knights have swords.

I am in Europe of the past. I followed the knights' tracks. They rode to a castle with WATCH TOWERS and DRAWBRIDGES. In front of the castle there are guards with helmets and real lances.

I got into the castle and I climbed many stairs. There was a huge wall with bright carpets hanging on them. Then a kind of fairy came in, maybe she was a real PRINCESS.

I would love to see you as KNIGHTS and PRINCESSES this week, so here I will give you models of HELMETS and CROWNS.

You choose!!!!

Love, FELIX
