

FAIR TRADE

In history when people didn't have money they BARTERED. They exchanged something they had for something else.

Imagine you are in the Middle ages. You have things in the first column. You want to buy the things in the second column.

What would you trade?

You Own

1 barrel of 30 apples

2 candles

3 blankets

2 pairs of shoes

1 hammer

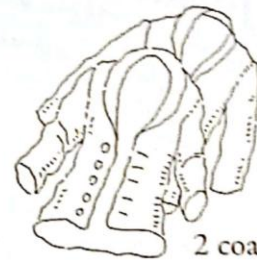

1 tin can

You Want

1 pillow

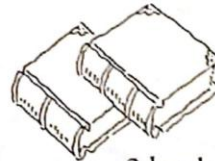

2 coats

1 sack

1 flute

2 books

3 loaves
of bread

Make some trades by filling in the blanks below. Think about the difference between what you want and what you need. You can trade more than one item at a time, but always think about what is fair. For example, it does not seem fair to trade only one of your apples for three loaves of bread. Or does it?
